Trading at Home.

There have been numerous articles written on the subject of "Trading at Home" and, by the way, most of them are truly good. It is worth the passing attention of our good folk. Here are the arguments which we think may be of service to our readers: When the catalogue comes from your mail order house, draw an easy chair to the table, where the light will shine full upon the page, and put on your glasses that no bargains may escape your eyes.

What a wonderful book it is, to be sure! Wonderful for what it does not contain, as well as what it does. You will miss some things you would be glad to see.

Where is their offer to exchange goods or pay cash for your wheat, oats, corn, beans, butter, eggs and hay?

How much do they pay for cattle, sheep and hogs, f. o. b. at your depot?

How much tax will they pay to support your schools and educate your children; for improving roads and bridges; the support of the poor of your country; for the expense of running the township, county and state?

On what page is their offer to contribute money to the church?

What line of credit will they extend to you when your crops are poor and money gone; when through illness and misfortune, you are not able to send cash with your order for your groceries, clothing, farm tools, crockery, stoves and ranges? Where is their offer to contribute to your entertainment next year?

What did they do last year?

In short, will they do anything to provide a market for what you have to sell and thereby keep up the value of your estate? Will they do anything for the social, church, school or government support, or do they take the dollar out of the community with no returns except the goods you buy?

Piles quickly and positively cured with Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. It's made for Piles alone—and it does the work surely and with satisfaction. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large Nickel-Capped glass jars, 50 cents. Sold and recommended by all dealers.

When the tip of a dog's nose is cold and moist, that dog is not sick.
A feverish dry nose means sickness as well all appearing. To have beautiful, pink, velvet-like lips, apply at bedtime a coating of Dr.

The residence of D. B. Wilson was discovered to be on fire Wednesday evening about seven o'clock, and the fire alarm sounded. About a hundred citizens went to the scene, and after much difficulty discovered the fire and extinguished it. It is supposed the conflagration originated from a defective grate on the second floor as it was between the second floor and the ceiling beneath, and under the grate. The floor and the hearth were chipped up in an endeavor to locate the blaze, and the plastering damaged by water, but which is fully covered by insurance.

College Letter.

On Friday afternoon, Oct. 20, the High School Literary Society resented an interesting program consisting of recitations, music, readings, essays, a paper and a debate.
The most exciting number was the debate on, "Government Ownership of Railroads," argued by Fannie Kearby and Frank Smith for the affirmative, and Willie Bondurant and Lida Moore, for the negative. The "Newspaper," edited by Harold De-Bow, who is developing encouraging editorial talent, was spicy, humorous and enjoyable.

Last week the pupils of the College were organized into a military company which drills at the morning and noon recesses. A drum has been secured, a large bass drum has been arranged for and banners may be used in the near future. The evolutions and maneuvers of the long line of marchers remind one of the times "in an endurist war." The pupils enjoy the drill so much that they can hardly keep their faces straight enough to meet the rules of the army.

The Senior class this year reaches the number of ten, the largest class going forth from the college for some time; and it excels not only in numbers but in enthusiastic determination to make the best of their opportunities. The members are as follows: Victoria Bondurant, Loto Cavitt, Ruth Ellison, Ruby Fleming, Russell Johnson, Fannie Kearby, Mary McDaniel, Mayme Naylor, Ruby Seay and Jessye Wall.

Social Entertainments of the Week.

EMBROIDERY CLUB.

At the home of Mrs. E. E. Reeves Wednesday afternoon, the Embroidery Club was entertained in what the guests declared a "simply royal" manner. According to the Courier's informant, refreshment, too delicious to describe, were served in two courses. Just before leaving, each guest was presented with a realistic souvenir, representing a little black slave, in the form of a pen wiper, made from the "wish bone" of a chicken. The head and feet were made of sealing wax. An evening of enjoyment for all was the result of the efforts of the hostess.

HALLOWE'EEN PARTY.

At the home of Mrs. D. W. S. Amberg was the scene of much pleasure, comic pleasure at that, on Hallowe'en night. The guests were the neighbors and each one, upon being invited, was requested to "dress funny and act funny." The home was decorated for Hallowe'en with pumpkins, corn, apples and autumn leaves, and upon entering the door a card asked each guest to take seats on the floor, which was done in a very comical manner, upon sofa pillows provided for the occasion. The comical dress and the comical manner in which each one seated themselves made the occasion as effective and realistic as was desired and planned by the hostess.

Some prizes were given, a pumpkin to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Millett, a pumpkin pie to Dr. Hubbard and wife and a bowl of cookies to Mrs.
Mattie Prather. Everyone was given an envelope in which was instructions as to what they were required to do, and no excuses accepted. This provided fun for all, for poor fellows, they did things unconsciously, which they would not have done knowingly. Comical songs enlivened things generally, and lo! when, after bidding host and hostess good night, they found a work bench in front of the door and a delivery wagon tied to the front gate, the trick of the Hallowe'en observers elsewhere, to retard the egress of the guests, after they had spent one of the most enjoyable evenings of their lives.

The new engine has been received and is being erected at the Ice & Coal plant, for the purpose of running the dynamo. It has not yet been completely erected, but it is thought it will be running by the first of next week. It is a high speed engine of about 100 horsepower.

My Old Kentucky Home

The sun shines bright in my old Kentucky home, The voters are booby and gay!
The rye is ripe and the Bourbon is in bloom,
And the shotgun makes music all the day.
The stone jug rises to kiss the waiting mouth And the upturned eyes glacially play On the soft blue skies of the sunny, sunny South,
In my old Kentucky home far away.

Put a shirt of mail underneath your Sunday coat, Wear an armor under your vest.
That's the safest way when the negro goes to vote,
And the white man's there to protest.
O! there's a gay old time when elections come around, There's music to liven the day:
The section's apade stabs the dark and bloody ground
In my old Kentucky home far away.

The black smoke pours from the chimney of the still,
The fragrance of juice taints the breeze, It rises up 'til the tears of angels spill And the man in the moon has to sneeze.
The red juice shines in the bottle on the shelf —
The sunbeams around it play.
If your throat gets dry pull the cork and help yourself,
In my old Kentucky home far away.

The feud man hides in the corner of the fence And waits for a shot at his foe.
That foeman's soul goes a-kim! to the hence,
To the land where they don't shovel snow.
The corner comes to investigate the death — And lags up comfortably gay.
The verdict says he died for want of breath —
In my old Kentucky home far away.

Weep no more my lady — weep no more today,
For things have changed in my old Kentucky home,
In my old Kentucky home far away.

Preventives, as the name implies, prevent all colds and gripe when "taken at the sneezing stage."

A Busy Place — J. F. & S. L. Dodds Co. Cotton Gin.

This building, which has had many improvements since this picture was made, is the scene of an enterprise, to be covered by any town. It receives, gins and ships from $5,000 to $8,000 worth of cotton each week. This is a worthy enterprise.

A Puxico, Missouri girl, aged eight years, was lost last week, while in the swampy night, and remained all night in an old house she found in her wanderings. A hunting party searched the woods all night and the family was almost distracted. The little girl took the matter very coolly, and when asked if she was not frightened at being alone through the night said: "No, but the wolves did howl some."

There will be a gathering of many members and workers of the Christian church at Fulton, Ky., to discuss the Bible School and its varied interests. Robt. M. SOUTHWEST

The Land of BIG CROPS and PROSPERITY.

Are you making as much off your farm as you ought? No matter how big your farm is, the trouble is the land must be made to produce more money to buy a big farm, and so you are trying to live in a small farm, or perhaps you are renting one and paying a large share of what you raise in rent. Wouldn't it be better to get a small piece of good land so little that you can own a big farm? (The acre of the ground is no more for you and all you raise is paid for good profits?)

There are thousands of acres of fertile land in the Southwest, and the line of the Cotton Belt Route that can be bought for from $10 to $20 an acre. This land is increasing in value each year.

See the Southwest at Small Cost.

A trip to the Southwest would convince you that your best land is in settling there. The trip can be made at a very little cost. The first and third Thursdays of each month you can purchase a ticket to any point in the Southwest or via the Cotton Belt Route at very low rates. Stop-overs will be allowed for you to examine the country you are interested in.

Write at once for free copies of books describing the Southwest country and for full information about cost of tickets, etc.

White Sale and Church Market.

The ladies of the Baptist Ladies Aid Society will conduct their White Sale and Church Market on Tuesday before Thanksgiving. The place has not been decided upon but will be announced in the Courier later.
For months he howled about reform Until he split his throat.
But when it came right to the point
The man forgot to vote.
He wrote he suffered grievous wrongs And wept along the way.
But on November 6 forgot It was election day.

Lee Armstrong and Miss Cornelia Evans, both from Hickman, were married by Squire H. S. Sacra at the residence of S. F. Howard, in Union City, Sunday.

A Carrier Dumped.

A rural mail carrier by the name of Washam was compelled to "drill" back from the country a distance of four miles Monday morning, while his wife took the mail on. This fellow Washam, whom we know quite well, began to deal out a lot of republican "stuff" until his democratic wife ejected him out of the mail wagon and made him "hoof" it out to Mayfield. He has promised to be good until after the election of the president.—Mayfield Messenger.

Changes in the Cabinet Announced.

The following statement regarding the prospective changes in President Roosevelt's cabinet has been made public at the White House:

On the retirement of Secretary Shaw and Attorney General Moody from the cabinet the following changes will be made:

Secretary of the Treasury—Hon.
George B. Cortelyou.

Postmaster General—Hon. George
Von L. Meyer.

Attorney General—Hon. Charles J. Bonaparte.

Secretary of the Navy—Hon. Victor H. Metcalf.

Secretary of Commerce and Labor —Hon. Oscar S. Straus.

The general understanding for some time has been that Attorney General Moody would retire on January 1, and that Secretary Shaw will follow him March 4 next.

On the first day of the year, therefore, Mr. Bonaparte, who is now secretary of the navy, will succeed Mr. Moody as attorney general, and he will in turn be succeeded by Mr.
Metcalf, the secretary of commerce and labor, the latter place being filled by Mr. Straus. Mr. Cortel-you, now postmaster general, will take Secretary Shaw's place on March 4, at which time Mr. Meyer is to become postmaster general.

The appointment of Mr. Straus caused considerable surprise, as it will be the first case where a children of the Hebrew faith has been made a member of the president's cabinet.
He was born December 30, 1856, and is well known as a merchant, diplomat and author. He represented the United States as minister to Turkey on two different occasions, and was appointed by President Roosevelt to fill the vacancy caused by the death of former President Harrison as a member of the permanent court of arbitration at The Hague.

School Teacher Missing at Columbus.

The following was sent the Appeal by the Hickman correspondent: On Monday morning when the pupils of the Columbus, Ky., school assembled to resume their studies it was discovered that Miss Dollie Thomas, one of the teachers, was missing. During the day it developed that on Friday night previous Miss Thomas had secretly departed via South Columbus on one of the Mobile and Ohio midnight trains, and so far she has not been heard of, although her family has made diligent search for the missing young lady. As she bought no ticket, the agent can give no clue to her destination or the direction she traveled.
Miss Thomas is a beautiful girl of the blonde type and is about 21 years old. Her home is at Oakton, Ky., a small place about six miles south of Columbus. She taught expression in the Columbus public school.

Present Day Philosophy.

Money talks and stops talk.
Some orators have a fine command of other men's language.
Any one can be a power for evil —It takes character to be a power for good.

The tact that somebody else does it, is society's excuse.

Certain men are determined to get their share—of what does not belong to them.

You can lead a man to College, but you cannot make him think.

You can fool everyone save God, and yourself.

The Government has prepared a suit, which probably will be filed at St. Louis within the next two weeks, seeking the dissolution of the Standard Oil Company, as a monopolistic combine and in restraint of trade.
The proceedings will be similar in nature to those which forced the abandonment of the Northern Securities Company.

Notice!

You will Never have
This Opportunity
Again!

I now have for sale five 6-acre lots.

These lots are within six blocks of Clinton street, the main business street of the city.

These lots are within two blocks of the street the churches are on, and seven blocks from the Hickman College.

You are just out of town—and right in town, being only 10 minutes walk to the business street.

These lots lay just outside of the Corporation, the line running just in front of them, you will therefore not have to pay any city tax, yet you will have every advantage that the man inside the city limits has.

Six acres of ground will give you a nice lot for a house.

A nice poultry yard.

A nice garden.

A nice orchard, etc.

There is now a good road passing directly in front of these lots, leading from West Hickman to East Hickman.

There is also a foot-bridge across the ravine that will lead you direct to the city.

I will build within the next five months a good, substantial drive-way across this ravine which will give you a direct drive-way to the city.

These lots will be sold for one-half their real value. If you do not want to build, buy for an investment.

These are the only first-class building lots left.

The town has grown very rapidly within the last five years, and will grow more rapidly in the next five years.
If you are thinking of buying a place to build do not delay as this is an opportunity that you now have and which you may never have again.

Upon investigation you'll find the description given of these lots to be absolutely correct.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

Use the bitter elements of life as medicine and feed on the sunshine.

Time is never lost that is spent in leading any person into a better life.

Don't neglect your children until they are grown and then complain because they neglect you.

Give your children good books, and plenty of them and then help them understand what they read.

Habits formed in youth are very apt to stick in you in after life. Young people who now spend every dollar they can raise, are not apt to be thrifty in after life. Those who go in rude company and use rude language will naturally associate with the rude class in years to come. Many parents never seem to think of those things, but allow their children to drift along just as it may happen.

Sympathy does not lighten a burden of sorrow, but it does help the burdened one to bear his load. If, therefore, you know of a sorrow which presses another's heart, give expression to your sympathy with him, even though you understand that he alone must struggle under the weight of his burden. In one sense your words cannot help him; in another sense they can. Speak them out, therefore, for what they may be worth. He will be grateful for them and you will be the better for their speaking.

Solomon's description of a lady is complete: "The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She girdeth her loins with strength and stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she giveth aid to the needy. She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is purple and fine linen. Her husband is known in the gates. Strength and honor are her clothing. She openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness." Strength, honor, wisdom and goodness and virtue are her requisites. A woman strong and womanly in all her ways in whom the heart of a woman can safely trust—this is the perfect lady.

Don't complain of your husband to anyone, not even your own mother. If she is the wise woman you think her she will respect you all the more. Did you think when you married your Will or your Harry that he was the one perfect man in all the world, and now you have found out that he is very human, after all? That it does seem sometimes as though he loved himself a little better than you? That he can even bear to differ with you sometimes in matters that concern you very much? And, oh, dear little woman, that he will forget just what you want him to remember sometimes? Now just take our advice and don't tell anybody. He is your husband, your other self—and you ought to cover his faults, just like you do your own.

Parental love, conjugal love, filial love are the keystone to that arch that supports the pillars of government and keeps our social system secure. As a rule anarchists have no children. No, nothing to love but themselves. As a rule the poor love their children better than the rich, for riches will in time absorb a man and absorb his best emotions. With the poor the children are first, with the rich they are second. The law of compensation comes into everything in this life. The good and the bad, the joys and the sorrow are kindly mixed by a wise Providence. Then let us all be content with our lot. Let us not look over the fence to envy our neighbor, for we know not his secret sorrows. Let us not trouble our own house for fear we shall inherit the world.

Honour the dear mother. Time has scattered sunny flakes on her brow, plowed deep furrows on her

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Curlin, Mr. Edward Harpole and Miss Muri Harper were united in bonds of holy matrimony by Rev. Stigler. The event was a consummation of several years courtship although the wedding was prearranged possibly for a few days only and hence without special ceremony or attending functions, only a few relatives and friends being present.

Miss Harper was a very popular young girl and admired for those qualities which grace and enable womankind: enshrines the altar with beatitudes of matrimony and widowhood. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Harper deceased, one of the county's best families.

The groom, Mr. Harpole, comes from one of Jordan's best families and is a noble young man and is worthy in every respect of the fair young bride he has won. They will reside with Mrs. M. L. Harper and will be at home after the 30th.

Dave Laswell, of Elizabethtown, Ky., has a large Russian mulberry tree that begins bearing fruit in May and continues in full bearing until November. The chickens are very fond of the ripe mulberries, as the berries fall on the ground, and live for six months under this big tree. After eating the mulberries for a short time the hens lay eggs colored like those used at Easter.
